INTERNATIONAL CANDIDATES SHOULD APPLY FOR ADMISSION BY FEBRUARY 1.

International students choose Willamette University because of the exceptional quality of our academic programs and the opportunity to work closely with faculty members. Chinese students can count on being challenged academically in a collaborative learning community. Small class size means you receive personal attention and mentoring from professors who are dedicated teachers committed to your success. You will live on campus with other students, which enhances your understanding of American culture and your total university experience. A Willamette undergraduate degree will prepare you for post-graduate academic work and success in many professional fields.
