GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Read only this sheet before the examination begins. Do not turn the page until the exam begins.

It is the responsibility of law students to be familiar with the Student Grievance Procedure. The following acts are violations over which the Grievance Committee has jurisdiction:

A. Acquiring or divulging unauthorized information concerning the content of an examination or other graded course material.
B. Violating the time limits provided for an examination, either by beginning before the stipulated time or by answering after the time set for completion.
C. Falsely representing another's words or ideas as one's own, in any academic work.
D. Collaborating upon a course-required project without the authorization of the instructor.

Put exam numbers on the exam envelope before the exam begins. Put exam numbers on the blue books as you use them. Page numbers are not necessary inside the blue books. At the end of the exam, return all used scratch paper and exam questions (unless instructions clearly state that you may keep the questions) inside the exam envelope. Return all unused materials next to the collection box in the lobby.

An announcement will be given in each test center to start and stop the exam, including a 5-minute warning before the end of allocated exam time. All writing and marking on exams must cease when the announcement is made that the allocated time for the exam has expired. No exceptions will be allowed, including writing page and/or exam numbers on your completed exam.

With the exception of laptop computers, the use of electronic devices (including headphones) is prohibited during exams, subject to WUCL’s Rules and Procedures.

If you have software problems that you cannot remedy by re-booting and re-launching the Exam4 software, you must hand-write the remainder of your exam.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

This examination will count for two thirds of your final grade and consists of two hours of essay questions. Read each question carefully. It is recommended that you allocate the appropriate time to each question. Budget your time carefully. Write well-organized answers expressed in clear and concise English.

On the front of each examination book, please write: (1) your student identification number, (2) Comparative Law, and (3) the question number (e.g., Q. I). If you type, please begin each new question on a separate page. Include the items (1), (2), and (3) at the top of each first page. If you write in an examination book, please start on a new page for each question.

This is an open book exam with the following limitations. You are only permitted to consult the required course book, English language, foreign language, bilingual, or law dictionaries, materials distributed as part of course assignments, and any notes or outlines you may have prepared (either yourself or in conjunction with other students in a study group) during the course or in preparation for the final exam. All other materials are prohibited from the examination rooms.

The rules of the Honor Code apply with respect to this exam.
