2.4 DIVERSITY

Willamette University seeks to be a diverse community that reflects the geographic, racial and cultural variety inherent in the world in which we live. Specific efforts are made to attract and retain a diverse faculty, staff and student body in order to strengthen academic excellence and ensure an intellectual atmosphere in which diverse viewpoints are freely expressed and respected, and diverse backgrounds are honored.