Applicant Information

1. The University is requesting the information on the following page in an effort to meet its affirmative action, non-discrimination objectives (If you receive this form in the mail, please return it to: Willamette University, Human Resources, 900 State Street, Salem, OR 97301).

2. Provision of the information on the reverse side of this form is voluntary. Failure to provide this information will not result in any adverse treatment of you as an applicant or as an employee if you are hired.

3. The information you provide will not be forwarded to the Search Committee or employing department. The forms will remain in confidential files in the Human Resources Office and the information will be utilized in compiling statistics regarding the composition of the applicant pool, and to assist the University in the evaluation/enhancement of its recruitment efforts.

   The Human Resources Office shall provide this form, to all applicants for employment at the University
Willamette University maintains a strong institutional commitment to diversity and strives to recruit and retain candidates from communities of color and ethnic groups.