Welcome to Opening Days!

On behalf of the Opening Days Leadership Team and staff, it is our pleasure to welcome you to Willamette University and the Opening Days program. In these upcoming days, you’ll have the chance to move into your room, explore campus, start class and get to know your fellow students. In addition, you’ll have time to meet the university staff and become more familiar with opportunities and resources available to you on campus.

The Opening Days staff is excited and honored to be a part of your first days at Willamette. You’ll be able to identify us by our cardinal or gray shirts. If you have any questions, can’t locate something on campus, feel completely overwhelmed, or need some general advice, find any Opening Days leader and he or she will be eager to help out.

As you’re probably aware, Opening Days is entirely student-run. Your OD leaders are current students and will act as your mentors, making themselves available to you anytime to ensure that you have an advocate and confidant should you need one. From Opening Days until your graduation day, your OD leaders will be a part of a network of professors, staff and friends who will become like your second family.

The programs and activities listed in this booklet were planned to connect you and your family with the Willamette community. Take advantage of your fresh start and the hard work our leaders have put into these events. Finally, don’t forget to enjoy yourself!

We’re so glad you’re here and can’t wait to meet you!

Best wishes,

Opening Days 2012 Leadership Team
