Thetford Lodge is located in a wooded area populated by a wide variety of wildlife, including cougar and bear. Wildlife will forage for food and you can expect that food consumed by humans, garbage and refuse from humans will be an attraction to foraging animals. The use of the Lodge presents guests with risks.

As a guest at Thetford, you agree that you will accept responsibility to:

- If sponsoring a student group, be present and accept responsibility for supervising the student group for the full length of the stay.
- Leave the Lodge clean and ready for the next guest.
- Remove all food from the Lodge.
- Consider the use of the river a source of recreation, but also a potential hazard.
- Consider the use of wooded areas that surround Thetford Lodge as a source of recreation but also a potential hazard.
- Leave no food or garbage outside the building area.
- Remove all garbage from the property when you depart.
- Report any sighting of cougar or bear at Thetford Lodge by calling the number posted in the Lodge, and reporting it to WU staff as you return the key.

Further, I understand and agree that contact with wildlife species, use of wooded areas, streams and rivers, and The Thetford Lodge may present circumstances that inflict harm, injury or death.

As the responsible party representing the interests of myself and my guests, I agree to indemnify and hold harmless Willamette University, its agents, assigns, Trustees, employees and students from any action or responsibility for my/our use of Thetford Lodge. I will take all necessary precaution when utilizing the property to protect myself from physical contact with any wildlife species I encounter, and the hazards presented when using wooded areas, river, and the physical property of Thetford Lodge. I further understand that I am responsible for retrieving the Thetford key and bucket of cleaning supplies from the Office of Scheduling, Events and Conferences before the close of business on the last business day before my reservation.
