Field Trip! To Lake Oswego Sculpture and Art Walk

Thursday, September 28th following class (Noon) | Gallery Without Walls, Lake Oswego

This is a self-drive field trip. Anyone interested can meet in the Willamette Heritage Center parking lot right after class and form carpools. Drive to Lake Oswego with Anita, eat lunch at St. Honoré French Bakery, take a walking tour to see the sculptures and visit the only Lawrence Gallery remaining in Oregon (if desired). This walk is filled with beautiful landscapes and a lovely garden.

Contact: Anita Owen is heading this up, you can contact her at anitahappyowen@gmail.com or call her at 503-990-2550

Gallery Without Walls is a unique outdoor sculpture exhibit in Lake Oswego. The exhibit contains eighty permanent and loaned works of art. The exhibition is open year-round and is free for everyone to enjoy.

Lake Oswego's downtown rotating exhibition features approximately thirty sculptures on-loan from artists for a period of two years, all of which are available for purchase. All other artwork in the Gallery Without Walls belongs to the City of Lake Oswego's permanent art collection.
