Please note that Tuesday afternoon is in Cone Chapel (Waller Hall - map). There are a number of steps to get to the Cone Chapel on the second floor. The elevator is broken. So, if you need help getting up the steps safely, be sure to ask someone for assistance.

Volunteers needed to assist members up the stairs and down again after the presentation!
Meet at the bottom of the steps before 1 PM Tuesday.

Last Week's Presentations (Recorded):

- Tuesday, 9/19/2023: Melanie Weston "The Joys & Challenges of Running an Art Gallery".
- Tues, 9/19: Stephen Alexander, Susan Coromel, Carly Christensen "New musical: IN THE DEEP"
- Thursday, 9/21/2023: Jane Kirkpatrick "The Power of Story in our Lives"

Some other presenters prefer not to share the recordings of their presentations outside of ICL. ICL members can view them in the Member Area (password protected) of our webpage. After logging in, click on the red dot menu in the upper right and select "Class Presentations" and then "All Recordings".

Field Trip! To Lake Oswego Sculpture and Art Walk

Thursday, September 28th following class (Noon) | Gallery Without Walls, Lake Oswego

This is a self-drive field trip. Anyone interested can meet in the Willamette Heritage Center parking lot right after class and form carpools. Drive to Lake Oswego with Anita, eat lunch at St. Honoré French Bakery, take a walking tour to see the sculptures and visit the only Lawrence Gallery remaining in Oregon (if desired). This walk is filled with beautiful landscapes and a lovely garden.
