OPTIONAL GO NEXT POST-CRUISE PROGRAM:
The Oberammergau Passion Play

AUGUST 27-31, 2020

1 NIGHT NEAR OBERAMMERGAU AND 3 NIGHTS
IN MUNICH INCLUDING ADMISSION TO THE PASSION PLAY

Nestled in the Bavarian Alps, the town of Oberammergau sits cradled by the impressive alpine scenery. Filled with history and picturesque architecture, this town is famous the world over for its woodcarvers, its woodcarving school, and the Passion Play. The village of Oberammergau stands as an archetype for devotion and dedication to religion and the arts.

In 1634 with the Black Plague rampant, villagers gathered in the center of town. Prostrating before a large wooden cross they made a promise. A promise their ancestors would keep for over 400 years, pleading with God to spare their town from the plague, the residents of Oberammergau pledged to re-enact the last week of Jesus's life every ten years.

The blight of the plague was lifted, and the Passion Plays began.

Every decade since 1634, nearly 2,000 residents become actors, singers, and orchestra musicians as the town performs at the open air Oberammergauer Passions Theater. Men, women, and children memorize lines, prepare props, build a set, and perform in the most famous theater spectacle in the world. The men spend months growing out their beards and hair to represent characters authentically, and some of the costumes and props are centuries old, passed down from generation to generation. The Passion Play is composed of eleven acts and last about seven hours, with a three hour intermission. With an attendance of over half a million visitors, don't miss your chance to see the performance of the decade with this Go Next Post-Cruise Program.
