

Willamette University
Jerry Hudson Speech and Debate Tournament
October 19-20, 2018

Entry Deadline
Tuesday, October 16, 5pm.

Welcome back to the annual Jerry Hudson Invitational. In order to speed things along, we will provide lunch for coaches and judges on Saturday.

Divisions

Senior division in all events is open to any regularly enrolled high school student. Junior division is open to students in their first or second year of competition, and novice division in debate is for students with no debate experience prior to this year including those who have not attended a summer debate workshop. In debate, we will offer all three divisions in each of the formats. In individual events, we offer only Senior and Junior division. We will collapse divisions, if necessary, in small events to provide for more diversity in competition.

Individual Events

Students may enter ONE event in Pattern A and ONE event in Pattern B.

Pattern A Events

Extemporaneous Speaking. Seven-minute time limit. Topics of national and international interest will be chosen from the preceding three months. Students are allowed thirty minutes of preparation time.

After-Dinner Speaking. Contestants must speak between 6 minutes and 6 minutes and 30 seconds. The speech shall be an original and entertaining yet edifying treatment of a serious subject.

Poetry. Eight-minute time limit with thirty-second grace period. Students should select no fewer than three poems and should organize their selections around a central theme. Manuscripts must be used.

Radio Commentary. Contestant must speak between 4 minutes 45 seconds and 5 minutes 15 seconds. The speech shall be an original news commentary dealing with current events. The speech shall contain no more than 75 quoted words. Manuscripts must be used.

Serious Interpretation. Contestants speak for 10 minutes, delivering a serious piece of prose or drama largely from memory.

Pattern B Events

Dual Interp. Ten-minute time limit. A memorized presentation by two speakers using materials cut from published, printed novels, short stories, plays or narrative poetry.

Oratory. Ten-minute time limit. The speech must be the original work of the student, must not have been used in competition prior to the current school year, and must contain no more than 150 words of quoted material. Oratory is a memorized event. Since this is an early tournament, students may use brief notes, but should be aware that judges may react more positively to speakers who do not rely on notes.

Impromptu Speaking. Five-minute time limit with thirty-second grace period. The speaker will draw three quotations, choose one, and speak without or with limited notes.

Expository Speaking. Eight-minute maximum with thirty-second grace. Students should deliver a speech to describe, clarify, explain, or define a concept, process, or idea. Audio or visual aids may be used. The speech must be the original work of the student, must not have been used in competition prior to the current school year, and must contain no more than 100 words of quoted material. Expository is a memorized event. Since this is an early tournament, students may use brief notes, but should be aware that judges may react more positively to speakers who do not rely on notes.

Prose. Eight-minute time limit with thirty-second grace period. Materials shall be cuttings from published, printed short stories, novels or essays. More than 50% of the words in the selection must be narration. Manuscripts must be used.

Humorous Interpretation. Contestants speak for 10 minutes, delivering a humorous piece of prose or drama largely from memory.

Debate

Note: No student can enter more than one style of debate.

Parliamentary Debate. Time limits are 7-8-8-8 for constructive speeches and 4-5 for rebuttals. Topics for each debate will be different and will be selected according to the State Rules for Oregon Public Debate. Topics will involve current events.

Public Forum Debate: Times are 4-4-3-4-4-3-2-2-3-2- 2 with 2 minutes of preparation time for each team. The computer will determine sides during preliminary rounds. In elimination rounds, sides will be determined by coin toss. Teams will still coin toss at the beginning of each round for speaker positions. The topic will be "Resolved: The United States should accede to the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea without reservations.”

Lincoln-Douglas Debate: Times are 6-3-7-3-4-6-3. The topic is “Resolved: In the United States, reporters ought to have the right to protect the identity of confidential sources.” for Junior or Senior Divisions. The topic for Novice is “Resolved: Civil disobedience in a democracy is morally justified.”

Entries

Space restrictions require us to constrain entries. Each school may enter up to eighteen debaters divided among the three styles of debate. Ten entries are permitted in each individual event with those entries distributed among junior and senior divisions in whatever fashion the school desires.

Judges

At least one coach from each school must be present throughout the tournament and must judge. If a coach cannot judge debate or individual events, that critic should not be listed for those events and appropriate judging fees will be assessed. One judge is required for every two debate teams or portion thereof, for every four LD debaters or portion thereof, and for every six entries in individual events. Judges cover number of entries, not number of students. Judging fees are $60.00 for each debate team not covered, $30 for each LD debater not covered and $10 for each IE entry not covered by a judge. We really prefer to have your judges, rather than your money.

Entry Fees

School Fee	$ 30.00
DEBATE TEAMS	$ 20.00
LD DEBATER	$ 10.00
IE ENTRY	$ 7.50
DEBATE JUDGE FEE	$ 60.00 per uncovered team
LD JUDGING FEE	$ 30.00 per uncovered debater
IE JUDGING FEE	$ 10.00 per uncovered entry

Nuisance Fees

Due to multiple late changes made by programs and judges refusing to pick up ballots, we are adding fees generated by those that cause the tournament undue nuisances. Judges failing to pick up ballots will get one warning for that school. We never want to resort to fees or dropping a school's teams, but we count on you to fulfill your professional responsibilities, as well as, those you hire doing the same. In the same tone, schools incurring nuisance fees will need to pay them prior to their school advancing into elimination rounds or further into eliminations.

Awards

Awards will be presented to finalists in all events. Sweepstakes awards will be presented for debate, individual events, and overall excellence.

Finalists IE & LD	3 points
Parli and Public Forum 1st Place	20 points
Parli and Public Forum Second Place	16 points
Parli and Public Forum Semi-finalist	10 points
Parli and Public Forum Quarter-finalist	6 points
Parli and Public Forum Octa-finalist	2 points

Registering for the Tournament

We will accept registrations until all available space is filled. To ensure your space, please make sure we receive your registration by 5:00pm, Tuesday October 16.

Entries will ONLY be accepted through www.forensicstournament.net. If you've not yet used this website for tournament entry, it is very intuitive and allows coaches to make multiple changes until registration close. This allows for coaches to double check their entry, reduces data entry errors, and makes announcements for the tournament easy to communicate.

If you've not used the website before, you will need to set up an account for your program and then enter the tournament by clicking on the "Jerry Hudson Forensics Tournament." Feel free to enter and/or make changes until 5:00pm on Tuesday, October 16. Any changes past that time will need to be sent to Robert Trapp by email: trapp@willamette.edu. Please, please, please make all final changes on the forensicstournament.net website before 5:00pm, October 16.

Fees will be assessed as of NOON on Wednesday, October 17. Changes past NOON on Wednesday will only add but not subtract fees.

If you arrive by car or van, park in one of our regular parking lots. We will give you a visitor's permit at registration. If you arrive by bus or by mini-bus, you must park in the lot behind Tokyo International University located at 14th Street and Mill Street. I have been informed by our security division that any bus or mini-bus parked in any other lot is subject to being towed. Security is also proud of its ability to tow school buses.
