

Job Description:

Nominating Committee

Willamette University Institute for Continued Learning

The Nominating Committee shall consider, interview, and select nominees for office with due regard for the qualifications required for the performance of the duties and responsibilities defined in the ICL Constitution, and shall present a report naming and stating qualifications of such nominees to the Board and to the membership, as specified in the Consitution.