Students will use their dining plan.
- 1:30 – 2:30 p.m. Parent & Family Campus Tour
Jackson Plaza
Meet an admission tour guide at the clock tower in Jackson Plaza. The tour is intended for parents and family members; students will receive a tour from their Opening Days leader at a different time.
- 2:30 – 3:30 p.m. First in Family! Parent and Family Reception
Cat Cavern, 2nd floor, Putnam University Center
Staff, students, and faculty are excited to welcome first generation students and families to the Willamette community! First generation students are students whose parents or immediate family did not complete a bachelor's degree or are not familiar with the U.S. higher education system. If this describes you, please join us with your family to connect with other first generation families and the Willamette staff and faculty.

- 5 – 6:30 p.m. Opening Days Kick-off Picnic
Brown Field (south of Goudy Commons; if rain, seating available in Goudy Commons and Putnam University Center) Line starts at Hatfield Fountain
A picnic dinner for new students and their families. During dinner, students will sign up for Passport to Salem/PNCA and Bearcats Give Back. Parents and family members will need a ticket, students will use their dining plans. Tickets will be available for purchase in Goudy Commons and Blitz Market. At 6 p.m. there will be a special welcome from our Opening Days leaders.
- 7–8:30 p.m. Parent & Family Reception
Putnam University Center Deck, 2nd floor
After you've said goodbye to your student, the Student Affairs staff invites you to meet other Willamette parents and families as well as members of the university staff. Please join us to enjoy refreshments before you leave. Brief program at 7:30 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23

- 9–10 a.m. Family Ties
