

WILLAMETTE LAW REVIEW
AND THE COLLEGE OF LAW'S PROGRAM
IN LAW & BUSINESS PRESENT

— Symposium —
VENTURE CAPITAL
AFTER THE BUBBLE

MARCH 5, 2004

TWO WORLD TRADE CENTER
25 SW SALMON
PORTLAND, OREGON

8:30 A.M. — 4:30 P.M.

Willamette Law Review and the College of Law's Program in Law & Business have assembled an exciting and distinguished group of speakers who bring both academic and practical expertise to their discussion of the latest developments in the law related to Venture Capital finance. The symposium will examine both the terms of current Venture Capital financing arrangements and the legal duties of venture capitalists and the firms in which they invest.

In Memorium

The 2004 Symposium and the respective Willamette Law Review Symposium issue is dedicated to Professor Robert Art. Professor Art passed away unexpectedly on Jan. 8, 2004, following a brief illness. Professor Art was a mainstay of the Willamette law faculty for 24 years and recently received this year's Jerry E. Hudson Award for Teaching Excellence. He taught Corporate Finance, Securities Regulation, Mergers and Acquisitions and Property at Willamette University College of Law. He was an outstanding scholar who was active in the Business Law Section of the Oregon State Bar, serving on the Executive Committee and on legislative drafting committees that produced Oregon's current Corporations and Partnership Acts. Professor Art was also the faculty advisor to Willamette Law Review for 22 years.
