

1st and 2nd Assignments

Reading: (please complete your reading assignment by 5:30 pm on August 24th)

Explore the following website:

Oregon Secretary of State – Business Registration and Guidance

- how to register a business
- business information center
- starting a business – business wizard

<https://www.oregon4biz.com/Coronavirus-Information/>

- learn about additional pandemic tools and resources available to businesses

<https://sos.oregon.gov/business/Documents/business-guides/start-business-guide.pdf>

(Explore these online tools and be ready to talk about them in class)

Read the following articles and explore the websites:

25 Things All Young Lawyers Should Know (Above the Law web article)

How I Started My Law Practice Right Out of Law School (Business Insider)

Starting Your Solo Practice as a 3L (My Shingle blog)

How to Start a Law Firm watch Sam's video and read the article (Lawyerist)

How to start a law firm: A complete guide (Clio)

Listen to any podcast episode from The Lawyerist that is of interest to you

(Be ready to talk about the above in our 1st class)

Assignment: (Please turn in your written assignment via Slack by noon on August 31st)

Remember:

Send your completed assignment to me as a PDF through Slack.

Name the PDF with the assignment number and your last name

Turn in your assignment to me via a private message to Kristin LaMont in Slack

(examples: 1 Jones, Sarah or 1 Smith, Matt)

A. Answer the following questions:

1. Have you ever owned a business before? If yes – tell me about it.
2. Has anyone in your immediate family owned a business? If yes – tell me about it.
3. Do you want to start your own law practice? Why? Why not? What are your plans after graduation?

- a. A lot of students take this class without an intention to start their own practice. This class will still be useful for you. Feel free to be candid about your interests.
4. What are your fears?
 - a. Fears of starting a practice, being a lawyer, or?
5. Describe your “best life” one year, five years and ten years from now.
 - a. Please be detailed – and dream big.
6. Where do you want live?
7. What kind of law do you want to practice? Why?
If you aren’t sure – tell me about your thoughts on selecting a practice area
8. What kind of law do you NOT want to practice? Why?
9. Do you want to be a solo, partner or something else?
10. Tell me something you want me to know about you. Hobbies, passions, why you want to be a lawyer? Whatever you would like to share with me.
11. Imagine your own law practice (*you can change your mind later... this is your first attempt – be bold and dream big!) Tell me:
 - Your firm’s name
 - Type of practice (ie., estates, business, family, securities etc...)
 - Location of practice
 - How big will your practice be? Just you? Partners? Associates?
 - What is your dream for this practice? Why did you select this area of law?
 - Dig deep and do your best to describe your wishes and dreams.

B. Use the Business Xpress website tools to explore starting your business.

1. What did you learn from the website that you didn’t know already?
2. Create a comprehensive decision list/decision tree of the things you will need to consider when starting your law firm (per what you learned from the Business Xpress website.)
3. Select the type of business entity you want to use for your law firm (ie., professional corporation, llc etc...) Download and fill out the appropriate forms so that you are ready to “register” your new law firm with the Oregon Secretary of State’s offices. (Note – if you plan to start your firm in another state, you are welcome to explore their website and use their forms for this exercise.)
 - a. Why did you select this business entity? Pros/Cons?
 - b. How much is the fee to register your business with the SOS?

