

SPEAKER SERIES

PRESENTED BY MOOT COURT

In July, the NCAA implemented a rule change which allowed college athletes the rights to use their own name, image, and likeness. Come listen to Professor David Carter (Associate Professor of Sports Business at the Marshall School of Business, University of Southern California) and Professor Jake Garlock (Senior Associate Athletics Director at Utah State University) discuss some of the key business and legal issues relevant to this decision.

Join us in-person or watch via Zoom

TUES, SEPTEMBER 21 -- 12:30 - 1:30
ZOOM MTG ID: 978 3728 5581
IN-PERSON LAW ROOM 201 (LUNCH PROVIDED!)

VISIT THE MOOT COURT WEBSITE FOR ADDITIONAL DETAILS AND RESOURCES