Willamette MBA News

Commencement speech by Punit Renjen, CEO Deloitte Global and Willamette MBA alumnus, to the Class of 2019

From humble beginnings in a small town in India, to CEO of a $45 billion organization, Punit Renjen shares the lessons learned during his 32-year career that began at Willamette.

2019 Summer Reading

Willamette MBA faculty have thoughtfully put together a summer reading list for prospective, admitted, and current students and alumni. Dive in!

Willamette MBA's Andrew Kach honored

Assistant professor of operations and supply chain management receives the Renjen Prize for Faculty Excellence.

#ZigZagHR New Book from Prof Lisbeth Claus

In this new and exciting book from Lisbeth Claus, Professor of Management and Global HR, HR professionals will learn the concept of #ZigZagHR and how it can position them, their careers, and their companies for success.

Featured Alumni

Willamette MBA Alumni Spotlight: Anannya Das

Anannya Das MBA'12 credits Willamette MBA for her successful career change from financial services to human resources.

Willamette MBA Alumni Spotlight: Anna Sevostyanova

"I wouldn't be at the Boys and Girls Club if it wasn't for Atkinson. They gave you a lot of preparation to help you succeed."

In the media

- Willamette MBA is ranked #27 in the world for inspiring and supportive instructors
- Assistant Dean and Director of Career Management, Beth Uris, is the new President of MBA Career Services & Employer Alliance
- Portland internships company goes to depths, protect the future (Contributing Associate Professor of Strategic Management Rich W. Wilson, CEO of Galen)
- Buy Local Experts, a Leading Amazon Marketing Firm, Welcomes New CEO Bryan Pocock (Junker)
- Ernesto Toskovic MBA'02 was the keynote speaker at the World Beat Festival's naturalization ceremony

Atkinson Graduate School of Management

facebook, linkedin