

Business Formal - Business formal attire is expected on Thursday of Compass Week. It is also the preferred attire for interviews, to work in formal companies and professional presentations. A black, gray or navy business suit with matching pants or skirt; button-down shirts/blouse, or shell under your suit jacket. Solid black or neutral color nylons (if applicable).

Business Professional – Business Professional attire is expected on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of Compass Week. Keep in mind that business professional attire is a step up from casual and a step below business formal. Slacks, skirts, dresses, button up shirts, and/or blazers are appropriate as are brighter colors. Nylons and matching suits are not required. No jeans, leggings, athletic attire, tennis shoes, or open-toed shoes.

Casual - Casual attire is what students usually wear to school on an average day and what employees might wear on 'casual Friday' to work. Jeans, t-shirts, jackets, sweaters, casual dresses and slacks are appropriate as are tennis shoes or sandals. Casual attire does NOT include yoga pants, sweatpants, or pajamas.

Athletic - Athletic attire is expected on Friday for the YWAM ropes course as there will be physical activity required. Athletic wear includes sweat pants, yoga pants, t-shirts, shorts or other sports clothing with tennis shoes and/or comfortable, loose clothing for physical activity.

