If you go to a pantry to get food, please keep these things in mind:

Do you qualify for food?

You are eligible for a food box if you meet the income guidelines shown below or if you currently receive: SNAP, WIC, TANF (Temporary Assistance for Needy Families), Free & Reduced Lunch Program, SSDI (Social Security Disability Income), SSI (Supplemental Security Income), and LIHEAP (Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program).

USDA Commodity Income Eligibility Guidelines 2017 (to be eligible to receive a food box)

Household Size	Monthly	Annual
1.....	$ 1,860 .....	$22,311
2.....	$ 2,504 .....	$30,044
3.....	$ 3,149 .....	$37,777
4.....	$ 3,793 .....	$45,510
5.....	$ 4,437 .....	$53,243
6.....	$ 5,082.....	$60,976
7.....	$ 5,726 .....	$68,709
8* .....	$ 6,371 .....	$76,442

If you do not meet these guidelines, let the pantry know; some are happy to provide some food anyway.

What should you bring to a food pantry?

A piece of mail or ID to help read your name and address more easily and to verify you live in the area they serve. You do not have to show any ID or proof of income to receive food.

What does a food pantry collect from you?

A food pantry only has to collect your name, address, and number of people in your household. Any additional info is optional, but not required to get food

How often can I get food?

Most pantries request that you come for food only one time per month. Ask a pantry what their policy is.

What and how much do you get in a food box?

Typically you will receive a variety of fresh, frozen, dried, and canned foods. These could include fruits, vegetables, meat, dairy, and boxed mixes. Food items vary each month and generally supply a minimum of 3-5 days worth of food.
