

Supplemental Travel Insurance Companies

If your current insurance policy covers you for all necessary health insurance requirements except for medical evacuation and repatriation, you can sign up for a supplemental travel insurance policy that covers these items.

Here is what you need:

You must have coverage for medical evacuation to your home country of at least $50,000.

You must have coverage for repatriation of remains (in the case of death) of at least $25,000.

It is your responsibility to make sure that you are adequately covered. Here are some companies that Willamette students have used in the past.
