

Housing Selection Process 2023-2024

Application, Housing Contract & Process Guide

Step 1: Housing Application & Housing Contract

Signing your housing contract is the first step to securing housing on campus. By signing the contract, you are indicating that you want housing. Your signature on the housing contract makes it an application. You must apply for housing/ sign the contract if you want to move through the housing process.

1. Log into the WU Housing Portal
2. On the left nav, select Applications & Forms
3. Then select Housing Contract 2023-24 (Fall 2023)

After you sign your contract, you will see an Application complete page that looks like this:

Application Complete - Housing Contract 2023-24

Thank you for your submission!

Don't forget to:

- Start thinking about where you want to live next year - tours of residence halls will be available- more info to come on tours
- Find a roommate! If you do not have a roommate when selection rolls around, we will pick one for you. Buying out the second space in the room will not be an option for 2023-24

Important dates:

- March 6-10: RE-UP process - apply to stay in your current location (first year students may not stay in their current location)
- March 13-17: Housing selection process begins
- March 20-24: Open selection - for anyone who has not chosen a living space

If you have any questions, please contact Residence Life & Housing at housing@willamette.edu

You will also get an email confirming your application:

[housing] Your Application Has Been Received > Inbox x

housing@willamette.edu to housing ▾

Dear Blitz Bearcat,

You have completed the following application: Housing Contract 2023-24.

Date/Time Application Received: 02/09/2023 09:45 AM

Next Steps:

Find a roommate

Renew Existing University Placement (RE-UP) – Selected locations only

Kaneko B & C Wing

Westside/Cornerstone

(Students living in first-year areas are not eligible for RE-UP)

Renters Insurance (optional, but recommended)

For more information on the housing selection process, contact housing@willamette.edu.